the village away, The loss of life was slight. The wave was preceded by a torrential downpour of rain, a fiere wind and constant flashes of lightning. These served to warm the people of the village, who bearm to move back from the shore. The wave flooded the village, while the fleeling people looked back in terror.

Seven hundred feet of the shore line was fundated. Several houses collapsed entrely, and the rush of water carried off everything pertable. Many of the hulldings were undermined. The people are still in a condition of terror and fault. One woman is reported dead and four persons are unaccounted for. The schoolinesse has been transformed into a hospital and shelters a score of wounded persons. The people of the village have sound trayed in the surrounding hills, but some clustered to-night about the village church, which stands on high ground.

At Messian, also, the softial was severe, and caused considerable damage. Bridges have been swept away and railroad communication is interrupted.

A landslide at Guidemandri buried a house and three persons lost their lives. The crops have been destroyed by the foods.

Reports from Taranto say there is great apprehension concerning the fate of eight fishing boats that have not been seen since the storm.

TERRORISTS SHOOT TWO MEN AT ALTAR

Believed That The yWere Suspected of Betraying Party Secrets.

WARSAW, RUSSIAN POLAND, February 9.—At Slavkoff, in the Province of Kielce, a band of terrorists to-day forced two workmen to enter a church, and then ordered them to kneel before the altar. While the men were in this position they were bound by the terrorists and then shot dead. The terrorists escaped, it is believed that the two victims were suspected of betraying party secrets.

Be Desperate Characters.

Joseph Valentine and William Coles, two negroes who are believed to be desperate characters, appeared in the Police Court yesterday morning, and their case was continued in order to allow the police time in which to investigate their past careers.

The information leading to the arrest of the two men came to Captain Whitlock through an anonymous letter. Valentine is wanted in Winston-Salem. N. C., for malicious assault, and his two wletims in that city are said to be hovering between death, and life.

Coles was found to have on his arm the initials "Ji*P." the same sent as a mark of identification if he were arrested. Coles is said to be wanted in West Virginia.

POLICE BELIEVE THEY KNOW WHO KILLED CORTESE

PATERSON, N. J., February 9.—Before he died, Justice of the Peace Robert Cortese, who was mortally wounded last night by the explosion of an infernal machine which he had received by express, made a statement, naming several persons whom he suspected of having sent him the package. Through this ante-mortem statement the police of Paterson and nearby cities expect to be able to run down the assass in or assassins.

The impression prevalls in some quartes that the machine was sent by some criminal organization which, had reason to fear the encolment of Judge Cortese as a detective-sergeant on the police force of this city, which the Police Commission was about to do.

NEW CASTLE, PA., February 9.—The Newcastle Savings and Trust Company, capitalized at $309,000, was closed to-day by Bank Examiner J. C. McCaia, under direction of State Banking Commissioner Burkey. The depositors, it is said, will be paid in full. There are about 300 stockholders. The bank became embarrassed through carrying $175,000 in bonds of the Washington Cocoa Company, and also other notes on which it was unable to realize when its reserve cash ran low. Efforts were made to secure a $159,000 from this week, but falled. When the Goors failed to open at the usual time to day, word was quickly circularid that the bank had falled, and within a short time many excited depositors appeared. The excitement still prevails.

The bank has $65,000 in deposits, with assets of $30,000 over this amount.

STARVED TO DEATH IN A FREIGHT CAR

PATERSON, N. J., February 9.—Workmen who broke the seal of a freight car in Benson's lumber yard to-day found lying on the floor of the car a man who had died from starvation. There was nothing found on the body to reveal the man's identity. He was about forty years old. The car was sent here from North Carolina, and had been a week on the way, it was filled with lumber, and it is supposed the man crawled into the car and was sleeping when freight hands placed the seal on the door.

NEW YORK, February 8.—J. B. Taylor, the colored runner of the University of Pennsylvania, won the principal event, a special race at 600 yards, of the indoor meet held by the Pastime Athlete Club at Madison Square Garden to-night. It was a splendid race, for Taylor competed with three of the fastest men in the country, and at the finish had a lead of only six inches over Harry Hillman, Jr., of the New York Athletic Club. Eli B. Parsons, of Yale, and Charles Bacon, of the Irish-American Athletic Club, Eli B. Parsons, of Yale, and Charles Bacon, of the Irish-American Athletic Club, and Ellery II. Clark, of the Boston Athletic Association, both of whom have had the honor of winning the national all-around championship of the American Athletic Union, met in field events. Sheridan won the shot-put handicap with an allowance of two feet with an actual put of 42 feet 10 1-2 inches, while Clark was third with 35 feet 3 1-4 inches and an allowance of seven feet.

S. C. Northridge, of the Irish-American Athletic Club, established a new American actual put of 42 feet 10 1-2 inches, while Clark was third with 35 feet 3 1-4 inches and an allowance of seven feet.

S. C. Northridge, of the Irish-American Athletic Club, established a new American ercord by winning his heat in the sixty-yard hurdle handleap in 8 1-5 seconds. He was second to C. D. Toole, of the New York Athletic Club, in the final, but while Toole's time was also 8 1-5 seconds, it did not count, as he knocked down a hurdle.

Priddy, His Only Opponent, Is Left But Thirt Feet Behind.

An immensa crowd enjoyed the intercesting program offered at the big roller rink at Idlewood last night. The race, which was the final two-mile event for the champlonship, was won by Lang, of Baltimer, in 642. Priddy, his only opponent, was left about thirty feet behind, Pollard and Hooker, the Richmond boys, having dropped out of the contest, Hooker broke the axie on one of his skates, and was forced to quit, Pollard lost his head, and when, on the 18th lap, Priddy tried to get by him, he fouled him and quit the race. The big crowd hissed him very rightly. The judges had already signaled him off the idoor, however.

The two Baltimore boys finished the race out between themselves, Lang winning easily.

Among the largest winners of the week Lang leads, with one preliminary, one second and last nightly final. Bront was second, having one first and one final to his credit, Priddy had one final to his credit. Priddy had one final to his credit.
